Kruger & the Greater Kruger Safaris

A wildlife marvel

Choosing your safari

With its fascinating diversity of wildlife, its variety of game lodges catering to different budgets, professional rangers and excellent infrastructure, South Africa provides a magical setting for a safari experience with three types of safari destinations – private, state-owned, or the world-renowned Kruger National Park.

A few hints and tips

We recommend you carry neutral-coloured light clothing, comfortable shoes, a warm pullover (mornings and evenings can be quite chilly), insect repellent, camera, binoculars and soft baggage not exceeding 15 kilograms per person. Malaria precautions are advisable. Children under eight years are not permitted on game drives at private game reserves and under the age of five in semi-open vehicles in Kruger National Park.

A typical safari itinerary

At O R Tambo International Airport you will be met by one of our representatives, who will guide you to the domestic departure hall for your flight to the airport or airstrip from where it is a short drive to your chosen game reserve. On arrival, transfer to your lodge. We recommend at least a 3 days/2 nights safari, where you can get to enjoy picnic lunches and exciting morning and evening game drives with professional game rangers in semi-open safari vehicles. During the drives you are likely to see not only the Big Five – leopard, lion, rhinoceros, elephant and buffalo but a host of other animals as well, including zebra, giraffe and many varieties of antelope. The dinners are mostly served in open-air

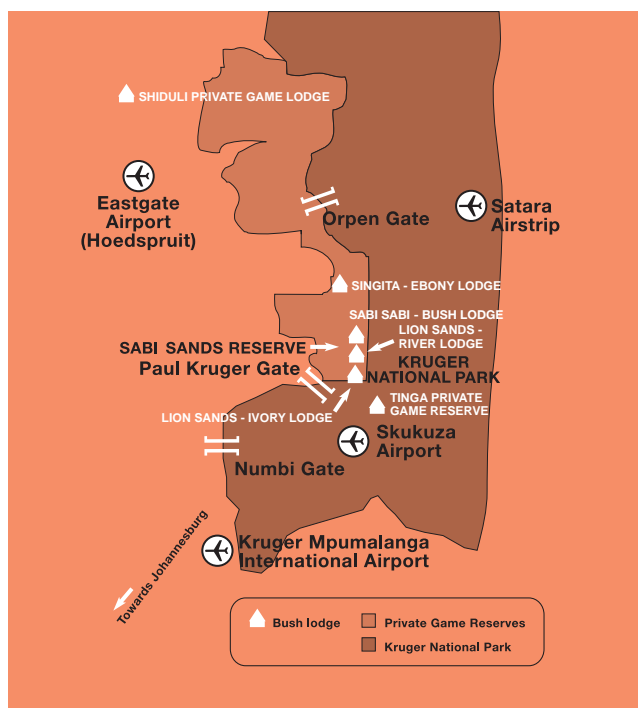

'Boma' (outdoor reeded enclosures) with romantic fires and lights. After the last morning game drive, transfer to the airport or airstrip for your flight to Johannesburg.

Cape Town

The world's fairest Cape

Situated amongst stupendous coastal scenery and overlooked by Table Mountain, a flat-topped outcrop with sheer cliffs rising 1,000 metres above the bay, Cape Town's location is exceptionally beautiful. In the surrounding country, extensive vineyards and fertile farmlands are sheltered by soaring mountains.

Places of interest: Whilst the cable car ride to the top of Table Mountain and its superb views is considered a must see for all tourists, Cape Town and its environs have much else to delight visitors. Nearby is Cape Point, on the Cape of Good Hope peninsula – the Atlantic coast, being particularly spectacular. In Table Bay, 12 kilometres offshore, is Robben Island, which from the 17th century until 1996 was a prison – its most famous inmate being Nelson Mandela. The Kirstenbosch Botanical Gardens, merging into the mountainside fynbos on the eastern slopes of Table Mountain, display a huge variety of indigenous plants. Those who enjoy history will relish the Bo Kaap Museum, providing an insight into the Muslim culture, a result of the slave trade carried out by the Dutch on the largely Muslim Indonesian archipelago; the District Six Museum, another attraction tells the story of 60,000 inhabitants who were forcibly moved when the district was declared 'white'. In contrast, Groot Constantia, the oldest and grandest wine estate, built in 1692, recalls a gracious way of life; and the Military Museum traces the turbulent history of the Cape.

For the family: At Simon's Town see whales, dolphins and colonies of penguins. Ratanga Junction Theme Park has more than 30 rides and attractions.

Best buys: African art and curios at Victoria & Alfred Waterfront; interesting handicrafts at Victoria Wharf Shopping Centre and Waterfront Craft Market; and large selections of designer brands.

Out and about: Victoria & Alfred Waterfront and Kloof Street are packed with restaurants and bars.

Sporting attractions: Golf, horse riding, trekking, surfing, kayaking, scuba diving, fishing and boat charters.

Durban highlights tour

Full-day seat-in-coach excursion

Durban is a multi-cultural city shaped by a complex collaborative history involving the early colonial settlers, the indigenous Zulu population and the Indian community who arrived as indentured labourers in the 19th century. To call it a 'city of contrasts' is often an understatement.

Our tour begins as we cruise along the brand-new Golden Mile, the revitalised beachfront promenade which hugs the beckoning beaches of Durban. We move through the city, visiting the majestic City Hall and enjoying its humorous history! The Phansi Museum in Glenwood is home to a spellbinding collection of southern African artefacts and traditions – from beadwork and headrests, to Zulu clay pots and other intriguing clues to the diverse South African cultural history. From history to nature, we visit the peaceful Durban Botanic Gardens founded in 1849, a treasure trove of massive trees from Asia, Africa and America, and a magnificent orchid house. Lastly, in harmony with Indian culture and history, you're going local... taste a unique Bunny Chow, traditional 'take-away' food of the Indian community, indeed of all South Africans!
